Induction Program Report

Two weeks induction program to welcome new batch of MBA students commenced in 2nd week of Sept. 2024. The program was the continuation of the Shubharambh series, “Shubharambh 2024” meaning “auspicious beginning”. The program was meticulously designed to ensure a smooth onboarding of incoming students into the dynamic world of MBA studies at the Camp Education Society's, Rasiklal M. Dhariwal Institute of Management. It started with orientation programme and followed by series of enriching sessions and activities. These activities were aimed to equip students with necessary skills and knowledge of ‘Management’.

Academic Orientation Sessions:

The orientation week began with a warm welcome address by Director, Dr. Bharat Kasar, emphasizing the significance of the MBA program as a stepping stone towards a fast-track corporate career. Dr. Bharat Kasar through his address discussed the MBA curriculum and how it can help students in overall grooming to be corporate ready. The welcome address was followed by academic orientation, where a series of informative sessions were introduced to the students including MBA syllabus, evaluation methods of Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU), specialization options, library resources, and the use of Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) and NPTEL. These sessions, thoughtfully designed and conducted by our experienced faculty, ensured that students were well-prepared academically for their MBA journey.

Introduction to various committees

Students were introduced to various student centric committees formed in the institute. The session was conducted by Dr. Rajesh Londhe. Statutory committees including Internal Complaints Committee, Anti Ragging Committee, Students Grievances Redressal Committee, Student Development Committee, etc., and non-statutory committees functioning was explained to the students.

Corporate Soft Skills Training

Sessions were also conducted by eminent resource persons from corporates. Corporate Trainer, Ms. Bhargavi Kulkarni from Elios Management Consulting Pune, conducted four hours ‘Soft Skills Training’ session aimed at enhancing students’ interpersonal skills and communication abilities, that are vital for professional success. During the session Ms. Bhargavi conducted individual and group activities and games to foster leadership, teamwork, communication, and adaptability skills in the students. The training focused on equipping participants with practical tools to improve these skills.

Learning through Corporate Incidents:

A session was dedicated for in-depth analysis of the documentary movie, ‘Inside Job’. The movie is based on the "2008 Global Meltdown". The movie provides a thorough exploration of the causes and impacts of the financial crisis on the world economy. Dr. Bharat Kasar steered the in-depth analysis to make the students gained a comprehensive understanding of the complexities of the corporate world.

Language Proficiency Test:

Proficiency in English is crucial for both academic success and corporate achievements. To assess and strengthen student’s language skills, an English proficiency test was administered by Prof. Dr. Amitabh Patil. Sir evaluated the test and shared the feedback with the students.

Main function:

The main function of the inauguration ceremony started with the opening remarks of Director Dr. Bharat Kasar. On behalf of the institute, he welcome the guests and congratulated the students for opting ‘management’ as the career. Sir highlighted the achievements of the institute in a short span of 12 years. Sir also provided an overview of the institute’s facilities and seamless efforts put in by the faculty, staff and management in creating a conducive environment for the overall grooming of budding managers.

This auspicious ceremony was attended by distinguished dignitaries. Hon. Chief Guest, Shri. Sudhir Mateti, Head HR, at Syntel Telecom (A Arvind Group co.), shared valuable insights of the corporate world, emphasizing the importance of personality development, positive attitude and team spirit, which are highly sought after by the industry. Capital Market Session:

In the second week of the induction program, students participated in insightful sessions on the capital market. Mr. Rohit Warman, an Empaneled Expert from CDSL and affiliated with SEBI and NISM, conducted sessions on 'Role of various companies in Security Markets'. His knowledge and expertise provided students with invaluable insights into the complexities of the financial world, Stock Market Operation and investments. Sir elaborated on the career opportunities that can be explored by the students after completing MBA. The session benefitted students by broadening their perspectives and offering a practical understanding of the workings of financial markets.

Book Review Session

As part of the induction program, a thought-provoking Book Review session was conducted by Prof. Ritesh Phalke. During the session, Prof. Phalke introduced students to the world of insightful reading and emphasized the importance of reading and understanding diverse perspectives through literature. He reviewed key business and management books, highlighting essential concepts and lessons relevant to MBA students.

Following the session, students were taken to the library, where various management books were introduced to them. As a practical activity, students were assigned a few management books to review. They later gave brief presentations on the books they had reviewed.
