

Date: November 29, 2025

Report:

Indian Constitution Day- Preamble Reading

On 26th November 2025, the institute solemnly observed Indian Constitution Day with great respect and enthusiasm to honor the adoption of the Constitution of India. The program was organized within the campus premises and witnessed active participation from both students and faculty members. The event commenced with a brief introduction highlighting the significance of Constitution Day and the importance of upholding constitutional values in our daily lives.

A key highlight of the activity was the collective reading of the 'Preamble of the Indian Constitution' by all the participants. Students and staff stood together in unity and recited the 'Preamble' with a sense of pride and responsibility, reaffirming their commitment to the core principles of Justice, Liberty, Equality, and Fraternity. The activity aimed to instill a deeper understanding of constitutional values among the participants and to encourage them to be responsible citizens of the nation.

The program concluded with a short address by faculty member, Dr. Rajesh Londhe, emphasizing the relevance of the Constitution in shaping ethical leadership and governance, especially for management students who are future leaders. Overall, the activity was meaningful and impactful, successfully reinforcing the importance of constitutional awareness and civic responsibility among the institute community.

Dr. Rajesh J Londhe
(Event Coordinator)

Dr. Bharat Kasar
(Director)

CAMP EDUCATION SOCIETY'S
Rasiklal M. Dhariwal Institute of Management
Sector 27/A, Nigdi Pradhikaran, Pune

Preamble of The Indian Constitution

Students and Staff members reading the Preamble of the Indian Constitution